Message from Superintendent Paul Coakley

Dear Centennial Staff,

As you know, this week is Classified Appreciation Week. Classified Employee Appreciation Week presents us with an amazing opportunity to thank our classified staff for the critical roles they play in the success of our District. Our classified staff’s constant diligence keeps our schools functioning smoothly, which helps everyone achieve their best.

I want to express my genuine admiration for the dedication, care, and commitment that our classified staff members exhibit every day! If there is a classified employee who you appreciate, please be sure to let them know. Let’s all take a moment to thank our classified staff for the work they do. Our District, staff, and students could not be successful without everything our classified staff members provide.

With appreciation,

Paul Coakley, Ed.D., Superintendent
